

Finance Director to CFO

An executive resume reframed from technical finance delivery to mandate, governance and enterprise value.

BEFORE — ORIGINAL WORDING

- Experienced finance professional with strong knowledge of reporting, budgeting and compliance.
- Oversaw month-end close, statutory accounts and audit preparation.
- Managed a finance team and supported the leadership group.

AFTER — REPOSITIONED BY MARVEL CAREER SOLUTION

- Finance executive who builds the reporting, controls and capital discipline a growing group needs before it scales.
- Held the finance mandate for a five-entity healthcare group: consolidation, treasury, banking relationships and board reporting.
- Reduced close from 21 to 9 working days by consolidating four ledgers onto a single chart of accounts.
- Partnered with the CEO on two acquisitions — diligence, integration planning and post-deal reporting structure.

WHAT CHANGED AND WHY

- Opening statement answers the question a board asks: what mandate can this person hold?
- Finance detail retained but subordinated to governance, capital and growth themes.
- Acquisition and board exposure surfaced to the first half of page one, where search partners read.
